

RIDDLE HONORED BY SCOUTERS AT LUNCHEON HERE

John C. W. Riddle, Baltimore St., resigning chairman of the Black Walnut Boy Scout district, was honored Saturday evening at a luncheon held by members of the scout district committee at the Lamp Post Corner Tearoom, Carlisle St.

Riddle, who had served for a number of years as superintendent of the National Cemetery and chief ranger for the Gettysburg National Park, has resigned as chairman of the Black Walnut district while serving his second term.

He has been transferred by the National Park services from here to Arcadia and moved today.

Praised By Tilberg

The vice chairman of the district, Charles Tilberg, Littlestown, and Dr. W. E. Tilberg, Gettysburg, will head up the committee until a new chairman is elected this fall.

Dean Tilberg served as master of ceremonies for the brief program. He praised Riddle for his "outstanding service to boys," and expressed the hope that he will continue in Scouting at Arcadia.

Attorney Edward B. Bulleit presented Riddle with a gift from the members of the district committee. Attorney Bulleit is chairman of the York-Adams Boy Scout council of which Black Walnut district is part and expressed the appreciation of the council to Riddle for his services.

Stanley C. Rogers, scout field executive for the Black Walnut district, told the group: "We lose a good man in the loss of John Riddle. During his tenure of office of just a little over a year, the number of boys in scouting in the district has increased from around 400 to about 800, nearly 100 per cent increase. The number of adults in scouting has increased by almost 200 per cent. The number of units has vastly increased and is scheduled for even more expansion. John can be more than proud of his accomplishments. And we can be proud that we had him as our chairman."

$35,000 ANNEX IS DEDICATED AT CASHTOWN

Judge W. C. Sheely was the principal speaker Saturday afternoon when the Cashtown Fire Company dedicated its new $35,000 annex to the fire hall.

The dedication highlighted the day's events at Cashtown which opened early in the afternoon with a baseball game between Cashtown and Union Bridge and included a roast turkey supper and games during the evening. The dedicatory exercises were delayed until 4:30 o'clock when the baseball game ran 10 innings and was won by Union Bridge 4 to 3.

Judge Sheely spoke of the importance and the value to community development of "unselfish, volunteer service" and reviewed the accomplishments of the Cashtown Fire Company. He congratulated the company on its record of service in that community.

The history of the company, founded in 1895, was read by the Rev. Robert D. Myers, Fairfield United Church of Christ pastor. The Rev. Fr. Louis Yeager of the St. Ignace Catholic Church of Buchanan Valley, gave the invocation. Harry Bieseker, chairman of the general committee, spoke briefly and presented Clarence Deardoff, (Continued On Page 2)

Three Dams Burst Causing 14-Foot Floods In New Mex.

LAS VEGAS, N.M. (AP)—Three dams on the Gallinas River burst early today and an estimated 90 million gallons of water flooded homes above and below the city to a depth of up to 14 feet.

No loss of life was reported, although damage to livestock and property was heavy. National Guardsmen and lawmen evacuated hundreds of persons from riverbank homes. The river, swollen by heavy rainfall, was falling as dawn broke.

Police Sgt. George Shannon said many of the homes had been built along the normally trickling river during the past seven years of drought.

Las Vegas itself, a northcentral New Mexico city of about 14,000 some 30 miles due east of the state capital of Santa Fe, escaped flooding. Shannon said the river banks held well within the city.

12 Homes Hit

Northwest of the city in Gallinas and Montezuma canyons, where the reservoir dams were situated, more than 12 homes were hit by the flash of floodwaters released when the earth fill dams burst under pressure of heavy mountain rains. Water ran three and four

JOINT SCHOOL DIRECTORS SEE NEW BUILDINGS

Six carloads of Gettysburg Joint School district directors spent Sunday afternoon inspecting three new grade school buildings in York county in preparation for early decisions about details of design and types of materials to be used in the new school to be erected on land recently acquired from the county farm.

Superintendent H. Edgar Riegler, a score of directors; Richard A. Folkenroth, elementary supervisor, and a grade school teacher, Mrs. Eugene Hartman made the trip. They left from the high school at 1 p.m. and returned after 5:30 p.m.

Representatives of the Buchart Engineering company of York, architects for the new building here, accompanied the directors on their tour, visiting a school to be opened this fall in East York; a one-year-old school at Spring Grove and a building used for the first time last year on the Glen Rock Road seven miles below Hanover, the Manheim Twp. elementary school.

The East York Elementary School at Haines Acres, to be opened for the first time in September—cost about $1,100 per pupil and made use of directional glass blocks for outer walls of the classrooms above the comparatively small windows. Terrazzo floors were installed throughout the building to hold down upkeep costs, the architects explained. The combination all-purpose room and cafeteria used tables that fold into the walls to avoid the necessity of changing furniture as "room uses change. The 12-room building is planned so that a classroom wing can be added later.

Inspect Spring Grove

An eight-room grade school building at Spring Grove was inspected where terrazzo corridor floors changed to asphalt tile in the classrooms. The building is without a general purpose room, cafeteria or kitchen with pupils being sent to a nearby high school for their noon meals.

The eight-classroom Manheim Elementary School building used painted block interior walls, terrazzo corridors and asphalt-tiled classrooms to present what many of the directors described as the most attractive building of the trio—and the most economical. Built principally of brick, its exterior front is made more attractive by the use of concrete slabs about the lobby entrance. The all-purpose room which also serves as cafeteria there has a stage at one end and a kitchen at the other and is equipped with folding tables and benches that make way for folding chairs when the room is used as an auditorium.

ROTARY TO MEET

The Gettysburg Rotary Club will meet this evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Caledonia Manor. No special program is planned.

Sickles Honored By Art Directors Club

Noel Sickles, brother of Eugene Sickles, local sign painter, was among the select artists whose illustrations were accepted for exhibition by the Art Directors' Club of New York. Thirteen thousand designs and drawings were submitted to the judges. Sickles' title page for "The Philadelphian" was accepted.

Not only is it a signal honor to be hung in the show, but it also means that the pictures will be incorporated in the "Art Directors' Annual" of Advertising Art and Design, the "bible" for art directors and illustrators all over the country.

FAIR GROUP TO SEEK ANTIQUE GARB CLOTHES

Mrs. Walter Frederick, chairman of the clothing and needlework department of the South Mountain Fair, Sept. 3-7, has announced a new theme for the department's presentation this year. In the past the committee has featured antique quilts and coverlets as the highlight of the exhibit. This year the committee is aiming at a representative comparison of antique and modern sewing. Along with examples of old sewing, Mrs. Frederick will have antique machines on hand so that the fairgoer can compare their work with that of the new machines.

The committee is especially interested in having displays of antique dresses, skirts, and old homemade underwear. Specimens of these kinds will enable the committee to present an interesting comparison between old ruffe work and embroidery and that turned out by the fashion discs of the modern machines.

Mrs. Frederick has also emphasized the fact that summer clothes may be displayed in the various categories even though they have been used and laundered. The only requirement for entry is that the materials should have been made between the 1956 and 1957 fairs and not exhibited at the 1956 fair. The clothes need not be new.

Substitute For Coverlets

Numerous prizes will be offered in the usual classes which include stuffed toys, colored or white embroidery, crocheting, tatting, cutwork embroidery, handloomed weaving and hemstitching, knitting, rugs, quilts, coverlets, bedspreads, bonnets and novelties.

Intentional Lawbreakers

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)—Eleven members of the Committee for Non-Violent Action Against Nuclear Weapons plan to break the law on purpose tomorrow by marching onto the atomic proving grounds here.

But they acknowledge their march may be halted short of criminal trespass by barred wire and guards.

The committee members, who call themselves a civil disobedience team, want to stage a peaceful demonstration in protest against the continued testing of atomic devices. They regard such testing as immoral. Their action is timed to commemorate the 12th anniversary of the dropping of atomic bomb on Hiroshima.

The team coordinator, Lawrence Scott of Chicago, said yesterday that a reconnaissance squad from his group went to Camp Mercury on the edge of the test site and found a "new barbed wire entanglement stretching out into the desert." He said the wire makes the gate to the camp the only possible point of entry.

"We do not expect the authorities to let us cross the line," he said, adding that his team would try it anyway.

8 Are Injured, $4,260 Damages In Eight Weekend Area Traffic Accidents; 2 Drivers Charged

Eight persons were hurt, none apparently seriously, in eight weekend traffic accidents investigated by state police from the Gettysburg substation who estimated the total damage bill at $4,260.

Charges already have been filed against two drivers and police are continuing their investigations. In several of the other accidents.

The heaviest damage occurred this morning about 6 o'clock in a three-car crash at the northern edge of York Springs on Route 15 when Helen Mary Trimmer, 44, York Springs R. 2, stopped to make a left turn. Wilbur L. Spidle, 47, Gettysburg R. 5, was following the Trimmer car and stopped his machine when he was struck in the rear by a car operated by Clyde L. McClain, 24, Fairfield. After McClain's car hit the Spidle auto the latter bumped into the rear of the Trimmer car.

No Injuries Sustained

No one was hurt but McClain's damage was placed at $1,200. Damage to the Spidle car was placed at $400 while the Trimmer car escaped with $10 damage. All had been traveling north when the double crash occurred.

A three-car collision on the Lincoln Highway west of here Sunday evening at 5:55 o'clock sent four persons to the Warner Hospital by ambulance but none of them was hurt seriously.

The injured were Evelyn Forry, 52, 34 South St., Hanover, bruises of the right leg; Sonya Wilt, 18, 334 Third St., Hanover, bruises of the right arm; Samuel Card, 50, York, laceration of the scalp, and Bonnie Hess, 15, York, a scalp laceration.

Lansberger's damage was placed at $300; Forry's at $400 and Butera's at $200. At 12:30 o'clock Sunday morning state police had been called to the scene on another collision about a mile farther west on the Lincoln Highway. Clair W. Richardson, Biglerville R. 2, told police he was traveling east when another car passed him and in cutting in clipped his left front fender. Richardson said the other driver did not stop but gave the police a description that led them to Joe E. Brown, Hanover R. 2, as the other driver involved. Damage to Richardson's car was slight and police are continuing their investigation.

Cars operated by Arthur Bitzel, Sykesville R. 3, Md., and Marlin Deardorff, Cashtown, collided a half mile south of here on the Littlestown Highway about 7:10 p.m. Sunday. Both had been traveling south. Deardorff was reported in the act of passing Bitzel when the latter attempted to make a left turn. Deardorff's damage was placed at $300 and Bitzel's at $15. Decline Moonlight Ride

It was announced at the meeting that the club members have been invited to participate in a moonlight ride by the White Horse Club of Hanover on Friday, August 9, but due to their participation in the local firemen's parade, the offer was declined. Refreshments were served on Thursday by George Basehoar, Charles Wilson and Ivan Arentz.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held on Thursday, September 5, at the clubhouse. The social committee is composed of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Barnes and John Bair.

Firemen Called

Alpha Fire Company No. 1 responded to a call on Saturday evening at 5 p.m. to the feed store owned by J. Ray Reindollar, on Lumber St. The fire was discovered by Ralph DeHoff, a neighbor to the store location, and two pumps and a service truck were taken immediately to the scene. Damage was negligible, according to Fire Chief

Later George accepted the President's appointment as special ambassador to NATO and spent some time in Europe.

Important Posts

In April he began suffering chest pains and a shortness of breath attributed to heart disease. On June 12 he entered Emory University Hospital in Atlanta and 12 days later went to Vienna, where he remained under doctor's care.

George was known as a conservative in domestic affairs but recognized as an internationalist in foreign matters. In addition to his important work on the Foreign Relations Committee, he served Upon investigation, it was learned that the fire was set and a local juvenile was involved. The investigation was turned over to Littlestown Police Chief Calvin S. Mummert and Fire Marshall John Murren, Centennial. The juvenile has been released to the custody of his parents and Chief of Police Mummert is filing a petition today for the juvenile.

as chairman of the tax-writing Finance Committee during the World War II and Korean War years of record spending and high taxes.

Survived "Purge"

He first was elected to the Senate in 1922 and only once faced major opposition. That was in 1938 when President Roosevelt, at odds with George over the New Deal, tried to "purge" him in favor of Lawrence Camp.

George accepted the challenge and defeated Eugene Talmadge, father of the present senator. Camp ran a poor third.

A few years later Roosevelt depended heavily on George for support of his lend-lease aid program to England and France.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

The office of Secretary of the Union State Committee has been tendered to our townsman, Edward M'Pherson, Esq., and he left this morning for Philadelphia to enter upon his duties. Few persons could have been selected better qualified for the situation. He is completely 'booked up' in the political affairs of the State and has fine talent, and an industry and perseverance which shrinks from no labor, however arduous.

Fire In Emmitsburg: The stables of Jacob Horner and Mr. Zimmerman, in Emmitsburg, were entirely destroyed by fire on Thursday evening last, together with a large quantity of grain and hay. It is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary as a person was seen leaving one of the stables just before the fire broke out.

Pennsylvania College: The Catalogue of this institution for the collegiate year 1856-57 has just been published. From it we gather that the Senior Class, which will graduate in a few weeks, numbers 17; Juniors 14; Sophomores 13; Freshmen 33; Partial course, 3; Preparatory Department 71 — in all 151. The Commencement will take place on Thursday the 17th of September. Rev. G. Diehl of Frederick; Dr. Riddle, of Philadelphia; Rev. D. P. Buttle of Salem, Va. and others are to deliver addresses during the days preceding the Commencement; and the annual exercises of the Junior Class will take place on Wednesday morning.

We find the following item in the local columns of the Baltimore American, of Thursday. We believe the Company has not positively determined upon a visit to Baltimore; but should they do so, they will, no doubt, have a "good time."

Military Visit: The Independent Blues, a military company of Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, propose visiting Baltimore some time during the fall. They will most undoubtedly receive a warm reception from their brother soldiers of the Monumental City.

SEVENTY FIVE YEARS AGO
Local Items: Littlestown post-office has been made a money order office. A. H. Slover has been appointed postmaster at Bendersville. Frank Smith has sold his house in White Hall, to Samuel Bixler for $750 cash.

Hon. Wm. McSherry and two daughters, of Littlestown, are at Cape May.

E. W. Mehring, Littlestown, has invented a hand engine with which he can throw water on any roof in town, and it only requires two men to work it.

Rev. L. M. Gardner, of Washington D.C., is rusticating at York Springs, where he owns a comfortable residence. On Sunday evening he preached in the Lutheran church.

The School Board of this place is having stairways built on the northern end of the public school building. This will enable the pupils of the schools on the second floor to reach their rooms without passing through other schools.

Wm. Stover killed a five foot rattlesnake with 13 rattles on the farm of Hon. Wm. A. Martin near Arendtsville. Lewis Brady and James McKendrick Jr., Buchanan Valley, killed one 5 feet, 5 inches long, with 14 rattles.

Welcome Home: Rev. J. A. Boll, of St. Francis Xavier's church this place, had a cordial welcome home on Wednesday night. A committee of the congregation met him at Hanover and on the arrival of the train escorted him to the pastoral residence, where Wm. McSherry Jr., Esq., delivered a neat address of welcome. In consequence of the large crowd and dampness of the evening, an adjournment to the church was had, where Father

Today's Talk

WISHERS

The world is full of wishers, the wish-I-hads. We are all guilty of the habit. I wish I had done this or that, and we worry over the fact, forgetting that all regrets should be buried in the past, where they originated. This day is the day of our salvation. This day is the one that we should alert, and in which we should perform.

Action is father to the wish. Pay attention to that. All of us wish we had done things we neglected to do, but crying over "spilled milk" has never helped anyone! Better it would be for us to wish that THIS day might be the most useful and happiest of all the days. Such a thing is possible! How about living better, and being better?

Why not try to do whatever we do, just a little better than anyone else has ever done the same job? Doing is so much more inspiring than wishing, and doing nothing. There are too many wishers in the world now! Like drones that merely stay around and let "George" or some other person do the job.

If we do the best we know each day that is all anyone can ask of us. Even Heaven could ask no more! Too many people live and work to pile up wealth. Thoreau had a different plan. He said: "O how I laugh when I think of my vague, indefinite riches. No run on my bank can drain it, for my wealth is not possession but enjoyment."

By wishing for better health, and a better and happier life, we walk into new territory and demonstrate character, courage and fulfillment. When we do what we can to lift ourselves, God steps in and gives the bigger lift!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Sunset Serenity"

Whenever my grandmother cuts the cake,
The biggest piece always she gives me.
If ever she's heard of the stomach ache,

"Pie hasn't hurt any youngster yet."
So let him enjoy it while he can."

Boll in fitting terms and with evident emotion acknowledged the unexpected and cordial welcome of his parishioners. A handsome supper had also been provided at the pastoral residence, which was decorated with flowers.

During the evening a number of Father Boll's personal friends, of other denominations, called to pay their respects. He is looking well and has in no wise suffered from his extended tour which covered the principle portions of Europe, Egypt, Palestine and portions of Syria.

We regret to learn that Father Boll is to be transferred to Lebanon, Pa., in accordance with the desire of Bishop Shanahan, and that the transfer will take place at once. We believe it is regarded as a promotion and a tribute to Father Boll's faithful administration in Gettysburg.

Arendtsville Items: The fine rains of last week have done incalculable good to the farmers, cheering the hearts of all. It came in good time for the early corn as it was suffering from the severe spell of hot and dry weather.

R. A. Lytle expects to re-open his school in this place on Monday September 4th.

Mr. Peter Taylor is erecting a two-story house in this place. It will be frame, encased with brick. When finished Mr. Taylor will move here and make this place his permanent residence.

The Reformed Church of this place held its harvest-home services on last Sunday. The pulpit was beautifully ornamented with wheat, corn, oats, evergreens and flowers. Rev. Heller preached an excellent sermon, showing the analogy between the temporal and spiritual harvests and giving much

Let's Look At The Record

By JIM DAN HILL, PH.D.

WYATT EARP, in the new American folklore of movies and TV, is the most benign, pious and withal the bravest of the frontier peace officers.

Were Wyatt alive, he most likely would resent it. He never aspired to be more than the best man with a pistol, that is — in the County of Cochise and City of Tombstone, Arizona.

Some do say he achieved this modest ambition. Others assert, on good evidence, that he proved himself to be little more than the best of the Earps.

THE MOVIE, "Gunfight at the O.K. Corral," was quite right in one, small, incidental scene. There were indeed five Earps.

Virgil Earp was the city marshal of the robust, raw, and raucous community of six thousand gamblers, speculators, cattle rustlers, ranchers and miners who were Tombstone of 1880.

Jim Earp ran the best saloon in town.

Morgan Earp rode shotgun on stage coaches for Wells-Fargo. Warren Earp was too young to carve his name on the Tombstone of that day, but he lived up to the family tradition. In an Arizona faro game Burt Alvord killed him.

The reputation of the two surviving Earps for cold vengeance was such that when last seen Alvord was headed for Argentina.

THE EARPS sought to monopolize law enforcement in the far-flung, sprawling, mountain torn county as well as in Tombstone. Sheriff Johnny Behan and his deputy, one Billy Breakenridge, were in the way. Jurisdictional disputes were common.

Wyatt wangled an appointment as deputy U. S. Marshal, which gave him police status throughout Arizona Territory. His candidacy for sheriff against Behan was early indicated. Wyatt's technique was to show up the sheriff by catching robbers and rustlers while Behan was still looking for clues.

All Were Culprits

This would have been highly satisfactory except that no one outside the Earp family normally thought he had captured the right culprits. But the Earps figured all gun-toting, cow waddies were culprits anyway, hence it made no good counsel and advice to his auditors on the blessings they enjoy from the hand of the Giver each year.

Wants Floodlights For 9-Mile Beach

LONG BEACH, Calif. — People who work all day should be able to go to the beach at night, says D. Patrick Ahern. And he's going to try to do something about it.

Ahern, who works all day as city councilman, is going to ask the Council to install floodlights along a nine-mile stretch of beach and keep them on until midnight.

"We forget that the waves keep pounding against the sand all night long," said Ahern. "We're allowing our prime recreational asset to become obliterated at sundown."

Besides, ranch hands had a bad habit of blowing into Tombstone, shooting out street lights and messing up the bar rooms with loose lead; all of which discredited Virgil's job as City Marshal. Hence the more cow hands in jail for any reason whatsoever, the better it was for the Earps, they reasoned.

"DOC" HOLLIDAY, a little, tubercular dentist with a nervous trigger finger, was an informer and an Earp-protected criminal. Everybody in Tombstone credited him with the wanton killing of popular driver, Bud Philpot, when the Sandy Bob stage was hijacked by four masked road agents near Tombstone.

Rancher Ike Clanton charged Wyatt Earp with planning the assassination of highwaymen Jim Crane, Harry Head and Billy Leonard to keep them from squealing on murderous Doc Holliday. Earp admitted he had promised Clanton the dead-or-alive reward of $6000, if he would trap these three worthies for him so he (Earp) would get the credit in his campaign for sheriff.

When the Bisbee stage was robbed by two other outlaws, Billy Breakenridge, in good detective work, pinned it on Frank Stilwell and Pete Spence; made the pinch in Bisbee, only to lose the prisoners to the Earps who claimed jurisdiction and the credit.

By this time tempers were so high all hands were in a rash of trigger itch.

TWO CLANTONS, Ike and Billy, with fellow ranchers Frank and Tom McLowry, rode into Tombstone for the usual liquor and lead recreation. Ike and Holliday had a poker argument. Virgil and Morgan ganged him, pistol whipped him; had him fined for carrying

Next morning, unarmed Tom McLowry exchanged sizzling and insulting profanity with Wyatt Earp. Wyatt worked him over with a pistol barrel.

The Clanton and McLowry brothers went to the O.K. Corral for the ride home. Morgan, Virgil, Wyatt and Doc Holliday followed them, ignoring the warning of Sheriff Behan.

The gun fight that followed was far from the fourteen-man Gettysburg shown in the movies. A Billy Claiborne had joined the cowboys. It was five to four, quick draws at close quarters, two of the ranchers reputedly without pistols. It was all over in twenty seconds. Morgan and Virgil wounded; three dead cowmen; Ike Clanton and Billy Claiborne in flight.

THE EARPS were through in Tombstone. Weeks later, Virgil was sniped at and wounded by a person unknown. Morgan Earp, shooting billiards in a saloon, was killed by a window-crashing shot. For this his brothers killed Frank Stilwell, and a "breed" suspected of being an accomplice.

Dodging warrants for their arrest, they left the field to Behan and Breakenridge, seeking refuge with their friend, Bat Masterson, in Denver, Colorado.

Yes, Wyatt Earp may not have been the best in the West, but he was certainly the best of the Earps. He lived until 1929.

About the same time a squad of detectives mounted on bicycles broke up a brawl between two gangs in the Bronx. Police arrested 14 men and boys who were slugging it out with baseball bats, heavy leather belts and iron pipe.

50-50 Class vs. Gettysburg Times, 6:30 p.m.

The undefeated 50-50 Class won its ninth straight Rec Slow Pitch League decision Saturday evening by coming from behind to take a 13-3 verdict from the Varsity Club.

The scheduled game between the Luther League and United Presbyterian was called off when neither could field full teams.

An error, five singles, double and homerun by Carbaugh enabled the 50-50 Class to score six times in the top of the fifth to overcome a 3-2 deficit. Five more runs came in the sixth on four errors, three singles and a triple.

The Varsity Club scored a run in the first on a single and three walks. J. Gastley's homerun was good for another tally in the third and in the fourth another run was produced via a double and single.

Spider Webb of Chicago and Charley Joseph of New Orleans will try to settle their own private feud Wednesday at Chicago Stadium in a middleweight battle.

Joseph upset Webb in New Orleans June 18, dropping his opponent in a non-TV test. This rematch will be carried by ABC-TV.

Rated No. 3

Sugar Hart whose rapid rise was slowed by Walter Byars in a late winter bout, moves against a highly-ranked welterweight Friday at Cleveland where he faces Virgil Akins of St. Louis.

Hart has lost two of 24 but Akins is rated No. 3 by Ring and No. 4 by the NBA among Carmen Basilio's contenders. Akins is 29.

Since losing to Byars, the youngster from Philadelphia has beaten Willie Stevenson and Al Wilson. Akins lost a surprising decision to Franz Szuzina at St. Louis, July 8.

The 10-round match will be carried on NBC radio-TV.

The Bobo Olson "comeback" continues Saturday at Portland, Ore. when the former middleweight champion mixes with Pat McMurry, Tacoma, Wash. heavy weight.

L-TOWN PONY TEAM VICTOR

The Littlestown Windsor Shoe Co. baseball team for boys 13 to 15 years of age, trounced the Hanover Eagles 10-2 on Memorial Field, Littlestown, Saturday afternoon.

Littlestown led the game in the opening inning when it tallied seven runs on six walks and a trio of singles. Creeger started on the mound for Hanover but was relieved in the first inning by Garrett following three runs and with the bases loaded and none out.

Worley hurried the entire game for Littlestown for his fifth victory against no losses. He fanned six, walked six and allowed only three hits. Worley and Stair each poled a pair of hits for Littlestown. The Windsor team now has a season record of 7-2-1.

PIRATE MANAGER GIVES FORMULA FOR GOOD TEAM

By JOE MOOSHIL

CHICAGO (AP)—Danny Murtaugh, Pittsburgh's new manager, recently got over a case of ulcers and has no intentions of running himself into poor health over the National League cellar dwellers.

Danny's formula is simple: "All we have to do is play winning baseball and I'm positive this team can play 500 ball from here on in."

Murtaugh, who replaced brash Bobby Bragan Saturday, got off to a poor start in his debut as the Pirates dropped a doubleheader to the Chicago Cubs 6-0 and 3-2 in 11 innings to drop into eighth place replacing Chicago.

Much Potential

"That double loss doesn't make too much difference," said Murtaugh. "This club is capable of playing 500 ball. All I have to do is get these kids winning. It's tougher to get youngsters on the right track than it is veterans but this team has a lot of potential."

Murtaugh, 40, said he is well aware he is a "temporary" manager, but he added "this is a real challenge and if the team can finish on a winning note it'll be most gratifying."

Moe Drabowsky, Cub bonus right-hander, blanked the Pirates on six hits in the opener and Danny said "he pitched a real good game but we could have won the second game except for one mistake."

Trouble Coming

"That 'one mistake' came in the sixth inning when ex-Cub Dee Fondy bobbled a ground ball which would have retired the side. However, ex-Pirate Dale Long stepped up and knocked out a two-run single which kept the Cubs in the game which they eventually won on Jack Littrell's pinch double in the 11th inning."

"I know one thing," said Danny, "we're going to cause trouble to some of those top teams chasing the pennant. And I just got over a case of ulcers so we'd better win because I don't want them back again."

Arendtsville and Huntersville won South Penn League games Sunday afternoon, two other games being postponed due to rain and were rescheduled for Tuesday evening.

The 9-8 victory gained by Arendtsville over invading Brushtown was the 12th straight for the upper counties. Brushtown outlived the winners 15-13 in the free-hitting affair and tallied twice in the final inning to come within one run of creating a tie. Pitzer, C. Spence and Shultz each pounded out three hits for Arendtsville. Yost, with a pair of singles and two triples, led the Brushtown assault.

Huntersville pounded out an easy 14-1 triumph at Greenmount. George King and Cleveland formed the winning battery. Kitzmiller, Staley and Little divided the pitching for Greenmount with Grenier doing the catching.

Union Bridge moved into a tie with Blue Ridge Summit for first place in the Pen-Mar Baseball League by taking two victories over the weekend. They downed Cashtown 4-3 in 10 innings Saturday afternoon at Cashtown in making up a previously postponed game and Sunday edged the Summiteers 4-1 at Union Bridge.

Saturday's game was a well-played affair with Union Bridge clinching the game with a tainted run in the 10th. After one was out, P. Duppins singled. Allen popped to first base but Wilhide singled to center and when the ball got through the outfield, Duppins streaked across. Cashtown outlived its conquerors 10-6 and led 2-1 until Union Bridge tabbed two in the seventh. In the last of the ninth Cashtown knotted the score when Roth walked, was sacrificed by Dolly and tallied when D. Bucher singled.

In another fine game at Cashtown Sunday afternoon Taneytown took a 4-1 decision, three runs came in the last of the final inning on a triple by Roth and single by Dolly.

Fairfield held onto third place by hammering out a 10-1 triumph at Emmitsburg.

VICENZO HOLDS 4-STROKE LEAD IN GOLF MEET

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP)—South American Roberto de Vicenzo is a realist. He holds a four-stroke lead over the field entering today's final round of the $25,000 All American golf tournament but thinks he can lose.

The husky pro, who now registers out of Mexico City, seems to be haunted by his blup in the recent National Open when he was third entering the final round then fired a 33 and soared to 43 for a 76 to be grouped with the also-rans.

Roberto, who can become the first foreign winner at Tam O'Shanter since South African Bobby Locke's victories in 1947 and 1948 shot a close-to-the-vest 70 in yesterday's rain-delayed third round for a 54-hole 203. This represented 13 strokes under par.

Snead Second

In second place, coming up with a rush was Sam Snead, 45, who hooked on a sizzling 66 for 207. Paul Harney carried most of the hopes of the younger set with 72 for 208.

Harney, 28, is from Worcester, Mass., and is a solid choice among the oldtimers to make a mark for himself in the "world" meet which carries a first prize of $50,000 and an equal amount for an exhibition contract.

Bill Casper, 26, and Dow Finsterwald, 27, were in at 210 entering the final round. Grouped with them was veteran Jimmy Demaree.

Roberto, one of the longest hitters in golf, admits he still uses a brassie (No. 2 wood) for many of his drives and doesn't use a tee under the ball.

KREMLIN CIRCUS LOSES 'B,' SICK POLITICALLY?

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY
AP Foreign News Analyst

It looks as if the famous Kremlin traveling circus of "B and K" has lost its "B."

Premier Nikolai Bulganin is not traveling with Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev, at least for the time being. He's staying home. Khrushchev went without Bulganin to Romania last week to meet with Yugoslav President Tito. He's going to East Germany soon for an official visit — also without Bulganin.

Has Bulganin's physical health suffered recently, forcing him to take a rest cure, or is his political health poor?

None To Firm

After Khrushchev purged V. M. Molotov, Georgi Malenkov, Lazar Kaganovich and Dmitri Shepilov from the Soviet Communist party leadership in late June, rumors circulated that Bulganin had not been very firm in support of Khrushchev during the crisis.

Quite possibly if Bulganin thought things were going against Khrushchev, he went over to the opposition temporarily, later backtracking in time to save his job for the time being.

Perhaps significantly, Soviet press reports of the speeches at the meeting of the Moscow party organization following Khrushchev's purge gave no space to any remarks by Bulganin. These reports grouped the Premier with M. G. Perukhin, who had suffered demotion in the purge, as those who "also spoke."

Americans who have studied films taken of the Khrushchev-Bulganin visit to Czechoslovakia last month reported that Bulganin seemed to be acting as if he were definitely on the outside of things.

It may be that Bulganin, 62, is simply not vigorous enough to keep up with the bouncy Khrushchev, 63. As Moscow dispatches suggest, the Premier may be tired.

But it also may be that Khrush-

Births 15 Pups, Seven In Plane

BALTIMORE (AP)—When Raffles, an overgrown fox terrier, left Houston, Tex., by plane Saturday, she knew she was in a family way. So did the pilot of the freight plane.

But neither the pilot, Capt. Peter Kooyenga, nor Raffles knew what was to come.

Raffles had to change planes in Chicago and that's where she gave birth to eight pups.

Between Chicago and Baltimore, Raffles produced seven more pups — a grand total of 15. All were doing nicely when the plane landed last night.

Slick Airways notified the Baltimore consignee, Dr. William C. Brown, to expect not one fox terrier, but 16. It said there would be no extra charge.

Brooklyn Boy Critical As Crash Kills Mother

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP)—A 13-year-old Brooklyn boy remained in critical condition today at St. Luke's Hospital following a weekend auto crash that killed his mother.

The boy, Robert Godlewski, suffered a fractured skull Saturday when the small foreign car he was riding in with his stepfather and mother veered out of control and crashed on the Lehigh Valley Thruway near here.

Robert's stepfather, Lowell Pettifels, 35, is in the same hospital in good condition. The boy's mother, Mrs. Frances Pettifels, was killed instantly in the wreck.

TITO MAY BE SPEARHEAD FOR WESTERN TIES

By IVAN I. STEFANOVIĆ
BELGRADE (AP)—Yugoslavia's President Tito was pictured here today as the spearhead of a new Soviet drive to forge closer links with the non-Communist Socialist parties of the West.

Experts on Yugoslav relations indicated this was a major result of Tito's surprise meeting in Romania last week with Soviet Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev.

Moscow radio described the meeting as the firming up of an agreement on "concrete forms of cooperation" between the Communist parties of Russia and Yugoslavia.

New Relationship

Experts here believe Khrushchev went further and agreed to a "new relationship" among Socialist parties of the world—non-Communist as well as Communist.

They said Khrushchev showed willingness to permit "a greater degree of freedom" for some East European countries and stressed his recognition of the Yugoslav Communist party's full independence from Moscow dictation.

The Tito-Khrushchev meeting was their first since the Soviet boss won his power struggle with Georgi Malenkov, V. M. Molotov and other Soviet leaders. One of the counts against the Malenkov-Molotov group was that they opposed the reconciliation with Tito.

Observers here saw the new Khrushchev-Tito accord as a move by the Soviet party chief to ally suspicions held by foreign Socialist parties of the Kremlin.

Second Try

They suggested Tito would occupy a "very important place" in the new setup on grounds that only he could bring the Socialists into the Soviet camp.

Khrushchev made overtures for friendship with the Western Socialist parties in the spring of 1956 but his attempt backfired.

Socialist leaders of 14 Western nations joined in rejecting any form of political cooperation with the Kremlin and invited the Reds to offer "adequate proof of a genuine change in the principles and policies of Communist dictatorship."

Western diplomats have suggested the latest Tito-Khrushchev meeting could herald the most significant Soviet-Yugoslav accord since Tito broke with Stalin in 1948. But they believe it would in no way prevent Tito from continuing good relations with the West.

The average American consumes about 187 soft drinks a year.

He had been president of the school for orphan boys for two years. Dr. Cooper had served in various capacities at Girard since 1932. Before going there he had taught school in Kennett Square, Perkasie and Avon Grove, Pa., and Riverton, N.J.

TRY TO TRACE UNION CHARTER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate rackets investigators try to trace today how a union charter bounced about among what they called "a succession of favored individuals."

"We want to see how often it bounced and where it landed," Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) said, referring to a charter issued for New York Local 228 of the old United Automobile Workers.

McClellan is chairman of the special Senate committee now investigating improper labor-management practices in the New York City area.

The group has received testimony that racketeer Johnny Dio controlled some locals of the UAW which later changed its name to the Allied Industrial Workers Union, and of the Teamsters Union.

"Exploitation"

"I think we have clearly demonstrated that some of these charters have been granted for purposes of exploitation," McClellan said.

McClellan said the committee, in four days of hearings scheduled for this week, plans to hear 40 to 45 witnesses in its efforts to uncover the extent to which racketeers have milked union members and shaken down employers.

So far, he said, the committee has shown "only a small part of the picture of what can and does happen when this unwholesome element gets in charge of unions and their actions are condoned by higher union officials."

Gamblers In Floating Dice Game Lose $50,000, Pants

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A group of Philadelphia sporting gentlemen were the victims of a rather un-sporting trick which left them temporarily minus their trousers and—in all likelihood—permanently minus more than $50,000.

The police have been interested in the doings of the group for over a year, since they had reason to believe their gatherings constituted what is inelegantly, if accurately, called a floating crap game.

Sad to relate, it was the un-sporting activities of another group of gentlemen which finally led police to their quarry.

Interrupt Game

The sporting gentlemen were gathered in a rented basement hall early yesterday when their activities were rudely interrupted by the un-sporting gentlemen. The sporting gentlemen numbered about 50, the un-sporting gentlemen only five. But being un-sports, the five came equipped with guns and knives. The sports were compelled to surrender their wallets, and the un-sports heaped indignity upon abuse by requiring the victims to remove their trousers. The un-sporting gentlemen then departed in haste.

Moments later, several of the sporting gentlemen were heard loudly exclaiming "holdup!" and "robbery!". Patrolmen Donald Friel and James Grant, on duty nearby, responded.

One Is Detained

As they entered the basement,

the officers encountered a trousered gentleman, 34-year-old Leonard J. Leo, who was leaving the gathering. Friel and Grant requested him to remain.

The sporting gentlemen, regaining their trousers if not their aplomb, declined to enlighten the officers about the circumstances. Mr. Leo was likewise uncommunicative.

Mr. Leo was later charged with armed robbery, conspiracy and violation of the firearms laws.

Some 20 sporting gentlemen were charged with gambling and breach of the peace. Police believe about 20 others left discreetly during the initial excitement.

Police say they estimate more than $50,000 may have been taken because their informants had told them a minimum of $1,000 a shooter was required as a stake in the high class game.
